

UFootballSC Waiver & Release of Liability

WAIVER & RELEASE OF LIABILITY

By registering a participant in UFootballSC programs, training sessions, camps, clinics, leagues, tournaments, and related activities, the parent or legal guardian acknowledges and accepts the terms outlined in this Waiver and Release of Liability.

Assumption of Risk

Participation in soccer and related athletic activities involves inherent risks, including physical contact, falls, collisions, weather conditions, equipment-related incidents, and other unforeseen circumstances that may result in injury, illness, or property damage.

Medical Authorization

In the event of an emergency, UFootballSC coaches, staff members, or representatives may seek appropriate medical treatment for a participant when a parent or guardian cannot be reached immediately.

Release of Liability

The parent or legal guardian releases and holds harmless UFootballSC, its coaches, staff members, volunteers, contractors, and representatives from claims, demands, losses, damages, or liabilities arising from participation in academy activities, except where prohibited by applicable law.

Participant Responsibilities

Participants and families agree to follow academy policies, safety procedures, and instructions provided by coaches and staff members at all times.

Photography and Media

Photos and videos may be captured during academy activities for promotional, educational, and informational purposes unless written notice is provided requesting otherwise.

Acknowledgement

By registering for UFootballSC programs, the parent or legal guardian confirms that they have read, understood, and voluntarily accepted this Waiver & Release of Liability on behalf of the participant.
